Madame Julia Maas,
27 Rue Mignot-Deistanches,
Brussels, Belgium.

Dear Mrs. Maas,

Miss Marié called me a few days ago and told me that you had written her since you are in dispair at not having received the balance of the money which Mr. Silva owes on your Guerner Cello.

I was in Europe for 3 months this summer and in the meantime Mr. Silva was trying to sell his Gofriller Cello to a pupil but, unfortunately, did not succeed. I have now taken his Gofriller in my hands and just sent it out to a customer in Chicago who seems to like the instrument and I shall know very shortly if the sale will go through.

I can well understand that you are tired of waiting for your money and if I had cash funds available I would send you the money myself but, unfortunately, business is so bad that I am not able to do so. However I am making every possible effort to get this matter settled as soon as possible, so please have just a little more patience and I am confident that things will turn out all right.

With kindest regards and all good wishes,

Yours very sincerely,

Emil Herrmann
